

LWC GIRLS XC AWARDS NIGHT 2021

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

- “Ruby KILLED IT THIS SEASON 🏆🏆🏆 She started off amazing but got even better as the season progressed! She’s an amazing runner and teammate!”
- “Obviously Ruby is an incredibly talented runner, but every meet she consistently improved and broke personal records! Definitely going to do amazing things in the future.”
- “Do I have to explain?”
- “Ruby is one of the most optimistic girls on the team. I do not believe that I have ever seen her complain. She has always put in everything she could give and I admire that. She is an insanely hard worker and is also a great teammate. She is kind and encouraging to everyone. She is simply a good person.
- “Ruby was a huge help to our team this year and always worked hard every meet. She improved so much throughout this season and never backed down in a race.”

ROOKIE OF THE YEAR RUBY HILLEGASS

MOST IMPROVED

- “Addie has dropped time and become even better than she was last season”
- “Addie killed it this season. She improved so much through this season and it especially showed in the mile time trail at the end of this season.”
- “Addie’s always pushing herself to do an extra rep or go a little bit faster, she never gives up.”
- “She always pushes and encourages other to do the same. She has never backed down nor complained about a workout or meet. And finds a way to smile in the hardest parts of a meet.”

MOST IMPROVED ADDIE ROBITZ

MVP

- “Claire is so unbelievably dedicated to running and will never give less than 100% effort. Her determination will truly take her far in life and inspire others to work hard as well!”
- “Claire is not only one of the kindest and positive people I know, but she is an exceptional runner. I am so grateful to be on this team with her as she motivates me to push myself harder with her kind words and her amazing runs. She made it to State and killed it even if she was alone, and I can’t even express how proud I am. Sophomore sensation!!”
- “Claire is someone you can always count on during a meet. She always is in the top pack and works very hard all season to stay up there.”
- “I nominate Claire because she did a fantastic job at State and she is dedicated to the team. She is always optimistic and happy. She runs great everyday and puts in the work with it.”
- “Claire pushes everyone to work harder from her talent and from her encouraging words. She is without a doubt incredibly inspiring to everyone on the team and is the most dedicated and hard-working person.”

MVP CLAIRE CARTER

GUTSY KNIGHT

- “She is really passionate about running and faces every race head on with confidence no matter the conditions.”
- “Ceci is always pushing even through the last mile. She surprises the team and always goes out with a bang! 🐱”
- “Ceci does a good job staying in the mix during races and she really stepped up big during the post season. She took uncomfortable risks and they really payed off. It's really cool seeing her fight off other runners and make huge moves during races. I think she has a lot of talent and I really admire her.”
- “She always worked hard at meets and practice. She kept pushing all season and got third on the team at the last meet! She's a very hard worker and very determined.”

GUTSY KNIGHT CECI NILSON

BEST TEAMMATE

- “Olivia has the best heart and never failed to make me smile! Even though this was her first season, she truly kept spirits high on the team! I am so glad she decided to join us this year.”
- “T-Pain!!!! She is such a positive person all the time and was so wonderful to have on the team this year. She always makes people smile and was incredibly thoughtful and kind even if she could not run the whole season. She is such a great person who made the team’s atmosphere much happier!”
- “Olivia is always there for everyone every practice and she had the most positive attitude on the team. She brightens everyones day and is the best supporter ever.”
- “Olivia is the most positive person on the team, and can cheer anyone up at any time . She makes everyone look on the bright side all the time, and is such a positive influence.”

BEST TEAMMATE

- “This was her first time doing cross country and she immediately just had great chemistry with everyone, and I don’t think a single negative comment came out of her mouth the entire season. Even when she wasn’t running, she was always cheering everyone on and lightening the mood. Her kindness is very admirable and she is a role model for everyone on the team.”
- “She’s the best”
- “A beacon of light”
